

Washington, DC - U.S. Congressman Mike Pence released the following statement today regarding the death of former Indianapolis Motor Speedway announcer Tom Carnegie:

"Tom Carnegie will always be a part of the greatest spectacle in racing and Indiana broadcast history. Memorial Day weekend just won't be the same without his voice and signature line, 'He's on it!' My family and I send our deepest sympathies to the Carnegie family and our prayers for peace and comfort in the days ahead."